

Preventing and Responding to Elder Abuse: How the Minnesota Elder Justice Center Can Help!

Presented for the Minnesota Gerontological Society Annual Conference

Friday, April 22, 2016 – Brooklyn Center, Minnesota

MINNESOTA
ELDER JUSTICE
CENTER

Welcome to the Minnesota Gerontological Society Conference!

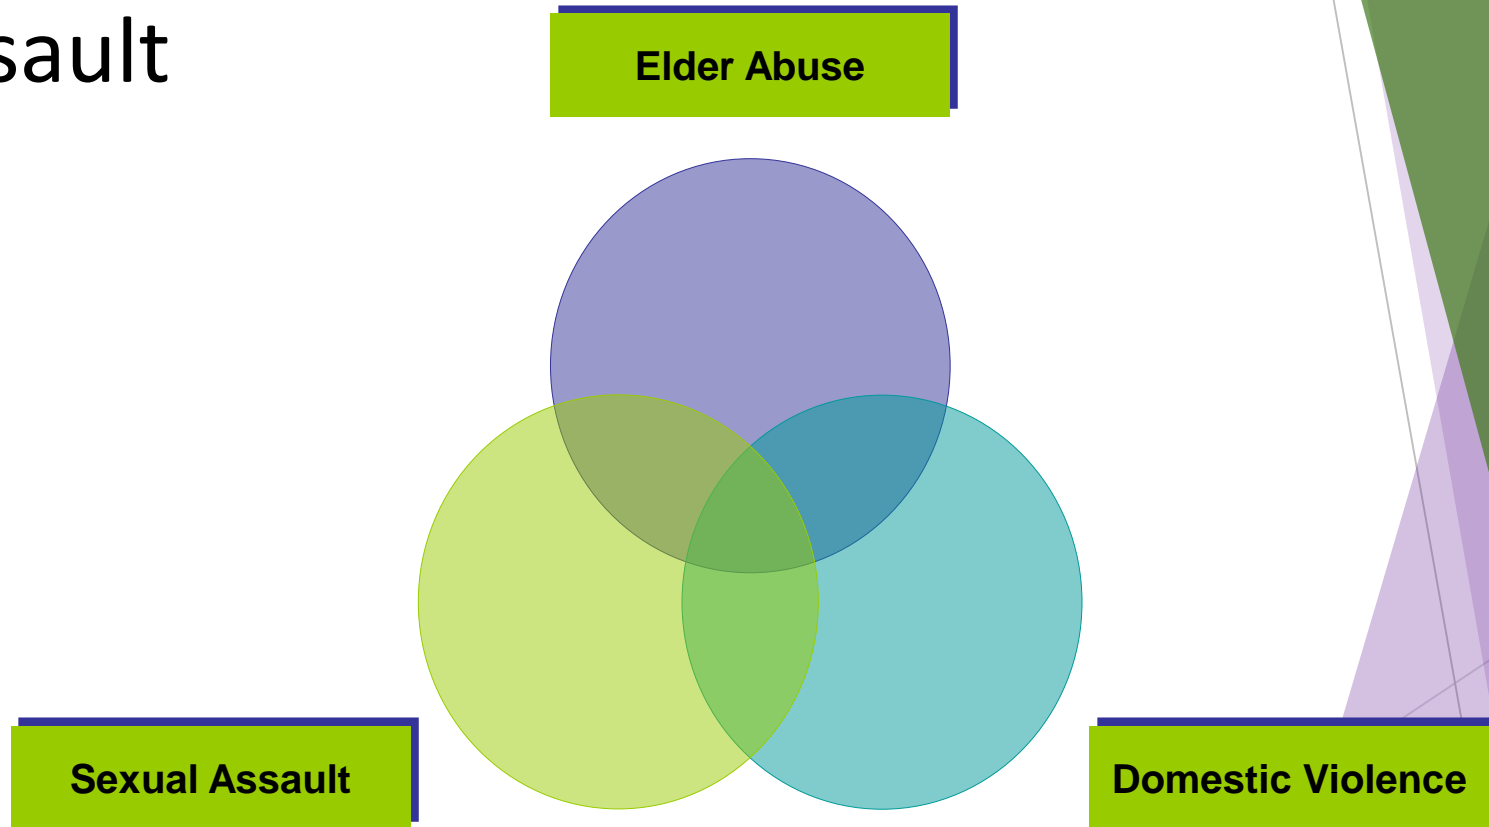

This afternoon, we hope to:

- ▶ Review definitions and statistics
- ▶ Introduce the Elder Justice Center
- ▶ Learn more about the MAARC common entry point
- ▶ Explore national priorities
- ▶ Discuss the development of MEJC projects
- ▶ Identify priorities for current and future action and advocacy

Elder Abuse: toward a definition...

- ▶ In general, elder abuse is any knowing, intentional, or negligent act by a caregiver or any other person that causes harm or a serious risk of harm to an older adult.
- ▶ Defined by age, relationship, type of abuse
- ▶ Victims are often on a continuum from active to having various medical, cognitive, mobility issues
- ▶ 2/3 of perpetrators of elder abuse are family members, trusted individuals and/or caregivers

Abuse in Later Life as a Subset of Elder Abuse, Domestic Violence, and Sexual Assault

Prevalence

- ▶ 1,000,000 – 2,000,000 adults in later life in U.S. are victims of abuse¹
- ▶ 1 in 10 persons over the age 60 are victims of elder abuse²
- ▶ Victims of elder financial abuse in U.S. lose close to $3 Billion each year³

Growth of Older Adults

- ▶ The Administration on Aging expects that by 2030, the U.S. population over age 65 will have doubled from 2000, with older adults representing 19% of the population.

Growth of Older Adults

Population age 65 and over and age 85 and over, selected years 1900–2008 and projected 2010–2050

NOTE: Data for 2010–2050 are projections of the population.
Reference population: These data refer to the resident population.

Types of Abuse

- ▶ Domestic Violence Late in Life
- ▶ Physical abuse
- ▶ Emotional abuse
- ▶ Sexual abuse
- ▶ Spiritual abuse
- ▶ Financial Exploitation
- ▶ Neglect
- ▶ Self Neglect

Abuse Warning Signs

- ▶ Physical – bruises, pressure marks, broken bones, burns, weight loss, malnutrition, poor hygiene
- ▶ Financial – abrupt transfers, changes to Power of Attorney or will, unpaid bills, valuable items removed from elder's home
- ▶ Spiritual – elder prevented from participating in ceremonial and spiritual events
- ▶ Changes in Behavior – strained relationships between caregiver and elderly person, withdrawal from normal activities, unusual depression, change in alertness

What can we do when we suspect abuse is happening?

- ▶ Share our suspicions – talk to someone – make a report...
- ▶ To emergency services
- ▶ To law enforcement
- ▶ To adult protection
- ▶ To a Tribal Court
- ▶ To an advocacy organization

The Minnesota Adult Abuse Reporting Center

- ▶ MN DHS single common entry point for maltreatment reports
- ▶ Previously, reports received by each county individually (sometime to multiple contacts within individual counties)
- ▶ MAARC accepts voluntary and mandatory reports

The Minnesota Adult Abuse Reporting Center

Mandated reporters are professionals or professional's delegate identified by law who MUST make a report if they have reason to believe that the abuse, neglect, or financial exploitation of a vulnerable adult has occurred. "Mandated reporter" means a professional or professional's delegate while engaged in:

- Social services
- Law enforcement
- Education
- Direct care
- Licensed health and human services professionals
(MS 214.01, subdivision 2)
- Employment in a licensed facility
- Medical examiner or coroner activities

The Minnesota Adult Abuse Reporting Center

A vulnerable adult can be anyone over age 18 who:

- ▶ Has a physical, mental or emotional disorder that makes it difficult for the person to care for themselves without help and to protect themselves from maltreatment (functional definition)
- ▶ Is in a hospital, nursing home, transitional care unit, assisted living, housing with services, board and care, foster care or other licensed care facility (categorical definition)
- ▶ Receives services such as home care, day services, personal care assistance or other licensed services (categorical definition)

The Minnesota Adult Abuse Reporting Center

Maltreatment includes:

- ▶ Abuse, including physical, emotional and sexual abuse, use of restraints, involuntary seclusion or punishment
- ▶ Neglect, including failure to provide necessary food, shelter, clothing, health care or supervision because of neglect by a caregiver or because the vulnerable adult cannot meet their own needs
- ▶ Financial exploitation, including theft or withholding of money or property and/or use of money or property not for the vulnerable adult's benefit.

The Minnesota Adult Abuse Reporting Center

- ▶ Began receiving reports on July 1st, 2015.
- ▶ Single toll-free number: 844-880-1574
 - ▶ Available 24 hours per day
 - ▶ Immediately notifies county agency (EPS); law enforcement (crime); Med Ex, Ombudsman for MH (suspicious death)
 - ▶ Refers directly to Lead Investigative Agency
- ▶ Online reporting for mandatory reporters

MAARC Feedback:

- ▶ Note: Federally certified SNFs; NFs; hospitals with swing beds have additional federal reporting requirements

The Elder Justice Roadmap

- ▶ The Roadmap, created by the National Center on Elder Abuse in collaboration with leaders in the field, identifies “the elder justice field’s most urgent needs as well as threshold barriers and challenges that must be overcome to address them.” (Roadmap, 7)

The Elder Justice Roadmap

► The Roadmap identifies the “Top Five Priorities” pertaining to efforts to prevent elder abuse:

1. Awareness
2. Brain Health
3. Caregiving
4. Economics
5. Resources

The Elder Justice Roadmap

- ▶ The Roadmap identifies elder abuse as “a problem with solutions.” To achieve these solutions will require conversation and multidisciplinary collaboration.
- ▶ Some responses are simple; others more complex. The Roadmap identifies that there’s a role for everyone...

MEJC Curricula projects:

The National Center on Elder Abuse contracted with the Minnesota Elder Justice Center to produce curriculum tailored to rural, outstate and agricultural communities; and curriculum tailored members of faith communities.

- ▶ Introductory curriculum deliver-able by non-professionals, and tailored to a lay audience.

MEJC Curricula projects:

- ▶ Specific issues arose in stakeholder workgroups and focus groups:
 - ▶ Isolation (geographic and social)
 - ▶ Seasonal challenges
 - ▶ Service availability
 - ▶ Privacy

MEJC Curricula projects:

- ▶ Specific issues arose in stakeholder workgroups and focus groups:
 - ▶ Multidisciplinary collaboration
 - ▶ Investigation and prosecution
 - ▶ Identifying and addressing family financial exploitation

MEJC Curricula projects:

- ▶ Other issues?
- ▶ Specific questions or observations you'd like addressed in public or professional awareness materials?
- ▶ Specific issues to be incorporated into our MN-specific materials?
- ▶ Major elder justice challenges facing your communities?

MEJC Curricula projects:

- ▶ What would you like to highlight as the particular strengths of your communities?

Other projects...

- ▶ Legal Workshops
- ▶ Case study database
 - ▶ Individual stories and experiences

How can we be of greatest service to you in your work?

- ▶ What are your “big picture” needs or ideas?
- ▶ What are your “day-to-day” needs or ideas?
- ▶ Are there notable gaps or needs in services we currently provide to older or vulnerable adults?
- ▶ What are your greatest sources of frustration in delivering services to older or vulnerable adults, either as a professional, a volunteer, a caregiver, family member or friend?
- ▶ What solutions do you envision in answer to those frustrations?
